

Industry sector at a glance Cleaning Services

About

The cleaning sector is divided in to four functions:

Industrial

Industrial cleaning involves cleaning hazardous areas in factories, warehouses and power plants.

Domestic

Domestic cleaning is for large premises, and requires using industrial cleaning products and methods.

Commercial

Commercial cleaning is for offices, shops, bars, restaurants, care/residential homes, hospitals, hotels and schools.

Household

Household cleaning is when an individual employs a cleaner for their home.

Roles available

There are many roles in the cleaning sector, here are just a few:

Cleaning operative

Area cleaning supervisor

Self-employed cleaner (houses/windows)

Cleaning supervisor

Regional manager

What it takes to work in cleaning

Here are some of the qualities required:

Trustworthy and professional

Organised and a good communicator

Motivated and committed

Did you know?

The cleaning industry employs over 1.63 million people, and there is a high demand for cleaners.

Transforming Lives.

0300 456 8162

employers@maximusuk.co.uk

Visit our website

